

PEACE, RUSSIA'S ONLY HOPE NOW

Japanese Have Their Troops Cornered Near Tie Pass--Awful Slaughter.

AMERICAN OFFICERS ARE CAPTURED

Military Officers With Russian Staff Taken At Mukden
By The Japanese--The Flight Continues.

(SPECIAL BY SCRIPPS-M'RAE.)
Tokio, March 14.—Kuroki reports that most of the foreign attaches with the Russian army including two Americans and two English officers were captured at Mukden. The fighting by Oku's army on the 12th near Iukampu, five miles west of the railway, was most desperate. The Russian casualties were over ten thousand killed and wounded; the Japanese a little over three thousand. The Russian dead were left in the fields in heaps, among them being many staff officers. A part of the extreme left of the army reached the railway between Mukden and Tie pass, destroying it and preventing any trains running north. Without the railway the Russians cannot remove the wounded or heavy guns, which probably will fall into the hands of the Japanese.

Official Word
An official dispatch from the front says there is an indication at Singcheng that our forces are now dislodging the enemy. Fushun was occupied March eleven. In the direction of the Sha river the pursuit of the remnants of the defeated Russian army continues. Very many Russian officers and men are surrendering in the districts of Tie pass. A thousand loaded carts were captured while going in the direction of the Sha river.

Heads of Peace
Birmingham, March 14.—The Post hears today a dispatch full of peace notes is passing between the officials at London, Berlin and Paris in an effort to stop the war in the east.

Peace May Be Near
Briefly, these were the reports current in the diplomatic corps, and as a result of this important information official Washington believes that Russia and Japan are on the verge of peace. If it be true that the second Pacific squadron has been recalled, even the most optimistic of Russia's friends admit that this is a strong indication that Oyamia's mighty blow has made for peace.

Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, is the notable exception in the group of foreign envoys here.

"However generous the terms which Japan might offer," the ambassador said, "Russian prestige is not among them. That is one thing for which the war will be fought to the end. Victory for the Russian arms will alone make for peace. If not at Tie pass, then at Harbin, Russia will assemble another army mightier than before, and with that army she will settle the issue. It may be six months, a year, or perhaps two years. Time will be no consideration."

Russia Must Make Advances.
At the Japanese legation it is declared that St. Petersburg and not Tokio is the capital from which the world must hope for peace proposals. Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister, said in the most emphatic manner that Japan had not directly proposed peace. He did not deny that neutral powers through their envoys from time to time had sounded Japan as to the terms on which she would accept peace, but these, he said, necessarily changed with the progress of hostilities, the intimation being that Russia could have obtained better terms after the fall of Port Arthur than after the capture of Mukden.

Demands Positive Agreement.
If the Japanese government were assured that peace proposals would be considered by Russia there is authority for the statement that Japan would respond immediately. But she will insist that these assurances shall be of the most positive character. Japan's experience in the negotiations preceding the war, it is said, will make her exceedingly cautious in the future. She will insist that such assurances shall come from this or that party or this or that friend of the emperor.

Negotiations to Be Direct.
Convinced that Russia and Japan will both soon succumb to the enormous financial strain placed upon them by the war, a diplomat representing one of the neutral powers most interested in the final issue has sent a confidential message to his government warning it to be on the lookout for a secret agreement to be negotiated between Russia and Japan direct, providing the preliminaries for a settlement of their difficulties. What it was that prompted the sending of this message cannot be learned, but its author is an official at all times exceptionally well informed on affairs of state and in the diplomatic corps. His belief that peace negotiations when they begin will be conducted between St. Petersburg and Tokio direct finds considerable credence. Indeed, another diplomat expressed the opinion to-day that the field of battle would be the scene of the first negotiations between the belligerents looking to peace.

Jap Armies in Touch.
London, March 14.—It is reported that the advance guards of Nogai's and Kuroki's armies are in touch north of Tie pass.

Russians Near Tie Pass.
The Pass, Manchuria, March 14.—The Russians are nearing their Tie pass positions. Japanese detachments continue a northward movement from Mukden.

The Present Week's Sessions.

MANY APPROPRIATIONS ARE MADE

Matter Regarding University's Income Comes Up For Settlement This Evening--Other Important Matters.

(SPECIAL BY SCRIPPS-M'RAE.)
Madison, Wis., March 14.—The Wisconsin assembly today passed the bill making the mutualization of life insurance companies compulsory when the company acquires twenty million dollars insurance. They must apply annually ten per cent of their surplus or earnings to the redemption of their capital stock.

Large Audience
Assemblyman E. N. Warner of Madison is explaining to the judiciary committee the merits of his state civil service bill and there is an audience filling the assembly chamber.

The hearing is being held this afternoon and a large number of officials of state institutions are present to object to the measure. They represent that the system proposed would fill institutions eventually with deadwood that could not be removed on account of civil service law; that it would perpetuate the holding of jobs and be bad for public service. The Bell bill, authorizing third class cities to raise money by taxation for municipal water plants, was killed.

A Hard Week
The present week in the legislature is to be one of arduous toil for the members. This was announced by Senator Reedy at the opening session for the week last night and on his representation the senate voted down the motion of Senator Smith to adjourn because of the absence of 14 senators, and also voted down the motion of Senator Wiperman, to adjourn after the calendar had been partly cleared up. All the business in sight, was attended to and the senate adjourned with little in prospect for today.

Some Bills
The Wilcox bill to provide a penalty for breaking jail was among the four passed. Thirteen senate bills were advanced to third reading, among them the corporation committee bill to enable cities to have either one or two aldermen to each ward, and the McGilivray bill to empower the state board of control to condemn dangerous and old county almshouses.

Use Chloroform
The senate chloroformed eleven bills, among them being that introduced by Senator Morris to punish wife-beaters, spendthrifts and common drunkards. The normal school appropriation bills were sent to the joint committee on claims. These in-

Pure Food Bill
The assembly last night passed three pure food bills, two by Mr. LeRoy and one by the committee on dairy and food. The measures provide against the sale of adulterated syrup and molasses. The assembly killed the Powell bill, to provide that all taxation shall be equitable and that no property which according to law ought to be taxed should escape assessment. The bill provided that no property that escaped taxation should be allowed to be mentioned in any court as evidence of causes of action.

Pursuant to the disposition to work hard this week, both branches of the legislature decided to meet this morning at 9 o'clock, an hour earlier than usual.

OVERTURNED LAMP CAUSES HORRIBLE TENEMENT FIRE

Nineteen Burned To Death in New York...
Brave Work of Lieutenant Bonner
And Other Firemen.

(SPECIAL BY SCRIPPS-M'RAE.)
New York, March 14.—Twenty or more persons were burned to death in a tenement this morning. The known dead are: Rachel Solomon, aged 45; Isaac Solomon, 25; Jacob Solomon, 18; two other members of Solomon family, first names unknown; Leo Cohen, 32; Elizabeth Bloom, 27; Hannah Ginsberg, 27; Louis Ginsberg, 9; Fannie Ginsberg, 3; Abraham Mueller, 5; Bessie Mueller, 48. Six others are missing and six were taken to hospitals. Many bodies are believed to be still in the ruins. Lieutenant Bonner, a son of former Chief Bonner, scaled a red-hot fire-escape five times, each time rescuing a woman and child. The last time, his strength gone, he was falling with his charges, when firemen saved the woman and child just as they were slipping from Bonner's grasp. Bonner fell against the hot iron and was about to roast to death when a comrade scaled the ladder and carried him off in safety. Four firemen and policemen formed a human chain and rescued a score or more. Many were slowly roasted to death on the fire-escapes. The dead now number nineteen. A careless tenant left a lighted lamp in a hall and in some way it was overturned, causing the fire. Up to ten-thirty this morning ten bodies had been identified.

SENATE WILL PUSH PACT THROUGH IN A HURRY NOW

Washington, March 14.—Every effort will be made by the senate to complete the San Domingo treaty and adjourn this week, and in order to help toward this wished for result the sessions will commence at 11 o'clock daily. It is conceded that a quorum cannot be held in the capital beyond that time. As to the fate of the treaty there is much doubt. Senator Culberson told the president that it was impossible to estimate the strength of the opposition. Some Democrats he knew would support the treaty; in fact, he said he had received a telegram from one Democratic senator asking that he be paired in favor of confirmation.

Domingo to Pay Expenses.
Only one amendment was offered in the executive session of the senate

Monday. That was presented by Senator Bacon and provided that such expenses of the army and navy as may be incurred in carrying out the provisions of the treaty shall be paid from the revenues of San Domingo.

Senator Burrows read a statement which declared that the original investment of the San Domingo Improvement company was only $1,500 and that it has grown to $4,500,000, drawing 4 per cent.

Senator Teller made an earnest plea for consideration of the treaty with open doors so that the position of the senators might be perfectly understood, but his motion was voted down without division. He then moved that a stenographer be present to record the debate, but that also was defeated.

Only one amendment was offered in the executive session of the senate

MOST DRASTIC ANTI-TRUST BILL YET MENTIONED IN

Illinois Legislature Will Take The Foreground In This Regard Now.

(SPECIAL BY SCRIPPS-M'RAE.)
Springfield, Ill., March 14.—Attorney General Stead's new anti-trust bill was introduced in the house by Representative McKinley, who had presented a bill of similar character before. This new bill contains the most comprehensive provisions against trusts which ever have been offered for the consideration of an Illinois legislature.

In its definition of what constitutes a trust the bill goes further than the anti-trust law of 1893, which was declared unconstitutional because of the exemptions it attempted to make. The new measure includes both insurance companies and underwriters in its scope.

Damages for Trust Victims.

Another feature of the proposed law is that it offers a remedy to the person injured by a trust. It provides "that any person who shall be injured in business or property by any such corporation by reason of anything forbidden or declared unlawful by this act may sue therefor."

FLORIDA FISHING SEASON OPENING

BIG SEA FISH NOW COMING INTO SHALLOW WATER.

TRUE FISH STORIES TOLD

Janesville Party Spending Time Enjoyably at Cleveland—Letter From There.

(For the Gazette.)

Cleveland, Florida, March 8, 1905.

The average fisherman spends a good deal of time in waiting for better conditions. The weather is either too dry or too wet, too hot or too cold, the prevailing wind in the wrong direction, or something is a little out of harmony, which tomorrow will regulate.

The Florida fisherman is of the average sort, in this respect, and so the past week has been spent in hoping for warmer weather. The temperature yesterday was 82 and starting in at 70 this morning, so that conditions in this respect are favorable.

There is something peculiar about salt water fish. They are very sensitive to cold and if caught in harbors or shallow water when the temperature is around 30 many of them chill and die as the result.

The cold snap in January was very disastrous to shark and Jew fish and hundreds of them perished before they could get back to deep water.

The month of February was cool for this country and the large salt water fish have kept out of the land locked harbors, on this account. The guests of the hotel have had no trouble in supplying the table however, as a boat seldom comes in without a red fish or a nice string of trout.

In the mean time the long summer evenings on the veranda have been spent in recalling sports of other years, for the Baileys and Cahoons are not novices and what they know about fishing in Florida waters would fill a book and read like a novel.

The old tarpon grounds are located about a mile up the river from the hotel. With boat anchored in about 15 feet of water, usually manned with two men, one at the oars, and one to handle the line, the fisherman waits frequently for hours with no sign of a bite.

The line, 200 yards long, on a free running reel, firmly fastened to a heavy bamboo pole 6 feet long, is thrown out 50 feet from the boat. The hook used is a 4-inch hook, with a lace leather snail 2 feet long, attached to a line which is light enough for a casting line and yet so strong that it never breaks when properly handled.

The bait is a small mullet weighing from half a pound to a pound and is considered a delicate morsel by the tarpon as well as by the shark and Jew fish or black sea bass.

With this kind of an outfit and the lander's daughter for a companion in the boat, Mr. Robert Cahoon waited one March day, a few years ago, for anything that might come along. After two or three hours of monotony, suddenly the reel commenced to spin and 200 feet of line played out and then stopped.

As the slack was taken up and the line straightened out the pull at the other end was like a log, and it was evident that either a shark or sawfish was in trouble, as the tarpon comes out of the water like a black bass, when he feels the first prick of the hook.

Then the fight commenced. The anchor was pulled up and the girl handled the oars like an expert. It remained to be seen whether the man with the rod and 600 feet of line the size of a whip cord, or the fish at the other end of it, would carry the day.

For four hours the fight went on. Sometimes the scene of conflict was a mile from the starting point, for the fish went with the boat whenever he was disposed, but was careful to keep out of shallow water.

After a time he commenced to sulk and then they reeled up on him and slowly led him in towards shore. When he showed top of water three or four shots from a pistol ended the exciting contest and when he had enough arrived to land him he proved to be a sawfish 12½ feet long, weighing 540 pounds.

Mr. George Cahoon had a similar experience a few days later, and his fish turned the scale at 500.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey were towed around the bay most of the afternoon by one of these sea pacers and as night came on they were obliged to cut loose and let him go.

These fish stories sound like fairy tales, but they are true. The fish are here but it requires both nerve and skill to capture them and while the fight is on it is intensely exciting. March and April are the best months for this kind of fishing. The first party is out from the house this morning on an experimental tour, while the younger members of the household are bathing on the beach. The warm weather brings out the alligators and it is no uncommon sight to see them lying in the sun on the mud banks. They are very timid and considered perfectly harmless.

A shipment of oranges at the little station a few days ago was consigned to a commission house in Philadelphia. The freight from here is 70 per box, so that growers scarcely realize 50¢ per box. A tree that yields 5 boxes is above the average and these with grape fruit are the staple products. Wealthy farmers are not known in this end of the state, and well to do people are about as scarce.

Miss Greenman is spending a week in Cuba with the Laughlin family. She has had some good duck shooting and has gained an enviable reputation as a marksman.

EVANSVILLE TRACK TEAM BANQUETTED

An Event in High School Social Life—Trophies of Meets Adorned the Tables.

(Special to the Gazette.)

Evansville, March 13.—The high school gave a banquet to the indoor track team in the Odd Fellows' hall on last Saturday evening. About a hundred were present including teachers and pupils. Tables were arranged in the form of a hollow square, each table representing a class. Furs and class colors were the decorations.

The senior and sophomore tables were the most elaborately decorated. The large silver cup recently won at Belmont was placed in the center of the seniors' table and the Rock county cup won by Evansville helped to make more elaborate the sophomores' table. On a wire extended from the lamps on the senior and sophomore tables hung the banner won by Evansville at the state meet in 1902.

The juniors and freshmen having no members, were not allowed any of the high school trophies by the manager of athletics. Mr. Charles B. Gates, the science teacher, was toastmaster and proved himself worthy of the place. Erwin Winter opened the evening's program with a toast from the sophomores to the freshmen. Alice Loyd replied to the toast with one to the sophomores. Paul Ames represented the seniors with a toast to the juniors and Leta Walton replied with one from the juniors to the seniors. Palmer Stauson toasted the teachers and Paul Le Baron reviewed the past of nine boys who now constitute the track team. The remainder of the evening was spent in a social way, and at a late hour the merry crowd departed for their homes.

One of the most artistic pieces of printed matter ever sent out of Janesville has just been completed by the Printing Department of the Gazette for the Hough Shade corporation. It is a booklet of seven colors, each sheet having passed through the press fourteen times to a half-line register. The illustrations in the booklet are reproductions in colors of porch shades of the Hough corporation's manufacture. The cover is in two colors with the new roughed effect, which is so popular at present.

Those who enjoy looking over fine printing can see handsome work here any time; it is a pleasure to show it.

Francis Wilson, the noted comedian who appeared here last winter in "Bermine," has for many years been a member of the actors' colony at New Rochelle, New York, but has found the place too crowded to suit him and next summer will locate in a fine new home at Lake Mahopac. Work of breaking the ground for the building will be commenced within three weeks and one of the most comfortable country homes, situated on a hill overlooking the body of water and closed around on the other three sides by seventy acres of wooded and meadow land, the estate which the actor owns, will be built immediately. The announcement of Mr. Wilson's intended removal will come as a surprise to the Thespians at New Rochelle, where he has been one of the leading spirits.

MAN SWALLOWED NAILS; IS VERY ILL

Leonard Koch Was Removed to the Palmer Hospital by Ambulance Early Sunday Morning.

At an early hour Sunday morning Leonard Koch, the man who was in a critical condition not long ago as the result of swallowing some shingle nails, was taken violently ill with indigestion or some allied malady, and removed by the ambulance to the Palmer hospital. It was feared at the time that he would not survive but is now reported to be improving. The man was formerly employed in the sugar factory but more recently at the Lewis Knitting Co.'s plant. He rooms on South Main street. The attending physician says that his present illness is in no way related to the nail-swallowing incident.

MRS. HALL'S MIRACLE.

Experiences Similar to This Have Occasioned Considerable Comment in Janesville.

Few women are better known in Lockport, N. Y., than Mrs. Pattie D. Hall, as she belongs to one of the best families and has a large circle of friends and acquaintances. In a recent interview Mrs. Hall said:

"The experience I have been through in the last two years seems like a miracle. I was so badly off that life seemed almost unendurable, and my deafness increased so that I could scarcely hear anything. The suffocation in my chest and the indigestion caused by my catarrh produced very severe suffering. I had five different physicians, bought everything that anybody recommended to me, but finally gave up in despair."

"One day my milliner asked me if I had ever tried Hyomei. I began the treatment, and can thankfully testify that Hyomei does cure this terrible disease. Since using it my hearing is greatly improved, and the only time I have any catarrhal trouble is when I take cold. I then use Hyomei, and always get instant relief. My friends and acquaintances marvel at the change in my health and hearing."

Hyomei has made many cures of catarrh, and in connection with Hyomei balm, of catarrhal deafness, in Janesville. Similar experiences to that of Mrs. Hall's have created a large sale for Hyomei with Peoples Drug Co.

The complete outfit, including the inhaler, costs but $1; while extra bottles are but 50 cents. Call Peoples Drug Co. to show you the strong guarantee under which they sell Hyomei.

FIND NEGLIGENCE THAT IS CULPABLE

But Coroner's Jury Does Not Attempt to Lay Blame for Sunday's Tragedy on Any One Man.

Engineer Frank A. Bartor's testimony on the witness stand before the coroner's jury yesterday afternoon gave an aspect to the circumstances leading up to Sunday's awful tragedy, somewhat different from the other impressions gained by spectators who witnessed it from various angles and distances. It appears from his narration that locomotive and car were stopped just before they reached the freighthouse track in order that John Byrne might throw the switch. This done, on a signal from him, they resumed their motion, proceeding slowly with the switchman running alongside.

In order to accept all the details of his recital it is necessary to believe that the car, shoved at first by the locomotive, acquired a greater momentum on the down-grade than the engine, itself, and was straining at the chain which bound the two together, as it approached the north end of the long string of other cars standing idly on the rails. Indeed, that if the nearest of these cars had not been almost precisely where it was, the fatality would not have occurred. This theory seems to be borne out by the fact that the "bad order" car, as it stood upon the tracks yesterday morning, while pressed snugly against the north-end coupler of the nearest of the line, had nevertheless not been shoved against it hard enough to "clasp."

Engineer Bartor testified that there was no stopping and starting again after the switch opening to the freighthouse track was thrown and the switchman signalled to go ahead. As they approached the storage cars, according to the engineer, Byrne made a motion with his hand to stop and stepped on the footboard of the tender. Had car and engine been close together at that time it would have been impossible for him to get between them. The emergency brake was in perfect working order, the engineer set it at once, and he does not believe the locomotive moved more than a foot after this was done. But in the interval of less than a minute after Byrne had given him the signal the engineer says he heard the switchman's cry. Yet, on the other hand, he remembers experiencing no sudden jar which might tell him that the "bad order" car had closed in on and bumped against the train. After the air pressure exhaust in setting the emergency he testified that it required some moments to reverse and go forward again.

This latter testimony seemed to answer in a measure the complaints of Switchman D. J. Barry and Yardmaster David Griffin that the engineer did not respond readily enough to Barry's shout to start ahead. He says that it required 45 or 50 seconds to do this. Barry stated that he shouted and then threw one of his mitts at the engineer, before the latter heeded him. Bartor testifies that he threw the reverse lever as soon as he heard the shout. From any standpoint it was all a matter of inches and seconds that cost a human life. Bartor testified that he had been a regular engineer since July 20, 1902, and his fellow employees agreed that he had been a careful man.

The jury in its verdict censures the railroad company but says nothing of particular individuals. The full findings are as follows: "An inquiry taken at the city of Janesville, in the county of Rock, on the 13th day of March, 1905, before Jesse Earle, one of the justices of the peace of the said county, upon the view of the body of John Byrne, there dead, by the jurors whose names are hereunto subscribed, who, being duly sworn to inquire on behalf of the state when, in what manner, and by what means the said John Byrne came to his death, upon their oaths do say that he came to his death, at the city of Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, on the 12th day of March, 1905, while acting as a switchman in the employ of the C. & N. W. Ry. Co. and while attempting to uncouple a "bad order" car from the switch-engine of the said Ry. Co.; and that said car is the property of the B. & O. R. R. and was being operated by the C. & N. W. Ry. Co. That said John Byrne came to his death owing to the culpable negligence of the said C. & N. W. Ry. Co. and its employees, by being crushed between the said "bad order" car and the said switch-engine, while in the act of uncoupling the same.

"In witness whereof the said justice of the peace and the said jurors have hereunto set their hands and seals."

JOE HEALD WON A FAMOUS RACE

Former Janesville Horseman Captures Noted Race with a Fast Horse.

In the Horseman, for February 21, special tribute is paid to Joe Heald, a former Janesville resident, for the able manner in which he handled the horse under his care—Lady Mary Tudor, a black mare by Directum—winning for the mare's backers in the neighborhood of $9,500. The Horseman, in giving a description of the event says: "The most successful race meeting in the history of the sport was held at Ottawa Feb. 6 to 9. The fields were large, especially in the stake race, when fourteen horses scored. The stake in question was for $1,000 early closing event for 2:35 trotters with light starters, representing the best unmarked trotters in the Dominion. Apart from the stake itself there was introduced into the event a renewal of the feud between western and eastern Ontario as to which would carry off the pools. Annually the Toronto contingent manage to get the large end of the purses, and with this object the gelding, Sir Robert, was touted as early as October last and was carefully prepared for the killing. He won two heats, but the mare, Lady Mary Tudor, managed to win the deciding heat after apparently being all out in the preceding heat won by Geneva Forest. The winner was sired by Directum; dam, Pearl McGregor, 2:21½; by Robert McGregor, 2:17½. The race was the best betting event ever held in Ottawa, there being $9,500 in the pool, and the bookies' two stands were jammed full during the five heats; in fact, there were hundreds who never reached the books owing to the rush. All the money remained in Ottawa, and as usual after such events in the frozen north, Driver Heald was mobbed after the win and could hardly get off his bike owing to the enthusiasm of the mare's backers." Mr. Heald is employed by Mr. McLaren, the owner of the mare, and now resides at Ottawa.

The government ordered Deputy Internal Revenue Collector McGorgan to release a large stock of whisky seized at Port Wayne, Ind., on account of color adulterations.

NO MORE DANDRUFF.

Newbro's Herpicide Destroys the Pesticiferous Cause of Annoying Dandruff.

Does your head itch? Is your coat or dress full of white flakes after dressing your hair? That's the effect of dandruff. Is your hair thinning? Are you beginning to get bald in spots? Are you already, in fact, rapidly becoming bald? If so, that is the effect of a measly little parasite that burrows in at the root of the hair, and throws up the scalp in dandruff and eats off the hair at the root. Science's latest discovery is a destroyer of that pestiferous germ. That destroyer is contained in no other hair preparation on earth but Newbro's Herpicide. Try it, and be convinced. A delightful dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and safe immediate effect of Swamp-Root is so realized. It is sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free; also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. ## ...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Tuesday, March 14, 1865.—Fire Alarm.—There was an alarm of fire last evening, caused by the burning out of a chimney in a saloon on south Main street.

Returned.—Dr. Treat, who has been spending two or three weeks in Washington and Baltimore, returned here yesterday. He reports a cheerful feeling at the federal capital in reference to our national affairs.

The Last Chance.—Dug. King informs us that the tickets of the Grand Gift Concert in Milwaukee, on the 22d inst., are to be withdrawn from the market on Saturday next, at this place. Those who intend to get one will therefore find it necessary to do so at once.

"Star Union Line."—Fast Freight.—We direct the especial attention of Wisconsin merchants, and shippers of the higher class, to or from Eastern cities, to the advertisement of the above transportation line. It is comparatively a new corporation, but it is increasing in popularity. It combines the facilities hitherto unattained by another transportation corporation; the most important of which is, perhaps, that the company uses its own cars, which are so constructed as to run on roads of different gauges thereby avoiding the necessary delay of transshipment. The company is officered throughout by men selected from different railroads, who are chosen because of their great experience, business capacity, and unquestioned integrity. The Northwestern agency, at Chicago, is entrusted to Mr. W. W. Chandler, for several years general freight agent of the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, with whom many of our merchants have transacted business, and have found him in all respects an efficient and honorable man.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Surprising Possibilities of the Telephone

As everybody knows, the growth of the telephone industry in this country has been of a character to surprise even those most familiar with its possibilities. The figures are suggestive of a wonderful expansion. In 1881 there were in the United States 28,336 miles of wire and 47,880 subscribers. On January 1, 1903, the Bell system alone reported 2,443,750 miles of wire with 1,277,953 subscribers.

At present the number of subscribers is growing more rapidly than the number of people. In fact, the steady increase in the ratio of telephones to population has led the Bell engineers in their latest estimates to look forward to a twenty per cent development in the near future. This means essentially a telephone to every other residence and as many in places of business. Only nine years ago the engineers were doing their work on an estimated development of three per cent or one telephone to thirty-seven persons, and even last year the construction work was based on plans for a ten per cent development. Experience, however, is proving that the limit of saturation will not be easily reached.

Recent inventions have made it possible for the telephone companies to swell their lists of subscribers without increasing their ratio proportionately; though, of course, the service is worth more the more nearly universal it becomes. The purpose of the Bell companies operating in Wisconsin is to begin improvements in 1905 at an aggregate cost of $750,000. This expenditure, based not upon the present population and the present ratio of telephones to population but upon the probable growth in both directions during the next 15 years, is a fair example of a policy which has to take into account a probable ultimate development of twenty per cent.

THE SHORT SESSION.

A disposition has been shown in some quarters to belittle the work of the 58th congress. It is said that the leaders in the two houses sought merely to "mark time," and that little effort was expended on really constructive legislation. The rather negative record of the session just ended is cited in proof of those assertions. But the 58th congress cannot fairly be judged by what it accomplished or failed to accomplish at the last session. Its full two years' record must be considered and credit must be given it for many substantial and not a few notable achievements. During its life the Cuban reciprocity treaty was ratified and advantageous commercial relations with Cuba were finally established. An Isthmian Canal treaty with Colombia was ratified, and, following the rejection of that instrument by the Colombian senate and the secession of Panama, a canal treaty with the new Isthmian republic was enacted in preparation for the construction of an interoceanic waterway under the undivided control and ownership of the United States. This last result alone would give historical distinction to the work of any congress.

In itself the last session's record seems rather barren and commonplace. No measure of the first magnitude was put through the two houses. But in the crush of routine business—becoming more inexorable every year—little chance is left now, days at the short session for the consideration of far-reaching legislative projects. The senate was burdened, too, by the conduct of an impeachment trial, which consumed many working hours.

In spare moments, however, besides the supply bills, acts were passed revising the tariff on goods entering the Philippines and providing for the extension of the Philippine railroad system and for public improvement generally in the archipelago; for making much needed changes in the Alaskan legal code and authorizing many reforms in Alaskan administration; for increasing the efficiency of the federal steamboat inspection service, and amending the trademark and copyright laws. A general arbitration treaty with sixteen other American republics was ratified. Arbitration treaties with seven European powers and a reciprocity treaty with Newfoundland were also approved, with senate amendments.

The two most important bills of the session failed to reach the final stages of legislation. A bill admitting Oklahoma and Indian Territories as one state and New Mexico and Arizona as another passed the house at the long session. Amended in the senate so as to let in Oklahoma and Indian territory as one state and New Mexico, without Arizona, as the second. It went to conference, and died there. The Bach-Townsend railway rate bill passed the house almost without dissent. But the senate felt that too little time remained to pass on all the questions raised by the house measure, and postponed action, authorizing its committee on railroads to sit during the recess and report at the opening of the new congress.

In the fact of a deficit in the revenues for 1904-05 and of an estimated deficit for 1905-06, economy in appropriations was imperative. In both branches all tendencies toward extravagance were successfully repressed, and, though congress made a generous and sensible provision for the needs of the navy, the expenditures for the coming fiscal year were held within bounds and all danger of an embarrassing deficit was avoided. If not showy or comprehensive, the prudent and well directed. In results of the session was, in the main, that of most short sessions in these days, when congress has to accomplish within a scant limit of seventy-five or eighty days, tasks for which six months are really needed.

SALISBURY.

Ex-Gov. Hoard on State School Superintendent in Jefferson County Union.

This office is designated by law to be placed outside of all political control or influence. Democrats and republicans can come together on the common ground of the best interests of our common schools and together select a man best fitted in their judgment to promote those interests.

We deem it fortunate for the people of this state that so able an educator and so thorough a believer in the common school as Prof. Albert Salisbury, president of the Whitewater Normal school, has consented to stand as a candidate for this important office. His candidacy is one that appeals to all that is good and wholesome in manhood; that is substantial in character, that is able in administration, that is sympathetic with progressive ideas in education.

Especially does his candidacy commend itself because of his earnest espousal, years ago, of the cause of the country district school. No man has or spoken in Wisconsin with a truer idea of the needs of that much neglected school than Prof. Salisbury. While a prominent leader in advanced education, he has shown a strong and abiding interest in the effort to introduce the teaching of the elements of agriculture in the common schools. The Whitewater Normal was, we believe, the first in the state to train teachers in a knowledge of those elements.

It is worth a great deal to the people of the state to have a man in that high office who will work earnestly in behalf of such objects. Our country schools have been sadly neglected, for they are not insisted in their demands on official attention.

The principal burden of our state taxation is for education. It follows, then, that we need a wise and energetic administrator at the head of our educational system. An able and earnest state superintendent can do a great deal to infuse life and purpose into these lower schools. The higher schools are surrounded by a strong vibrant spirit which keeps them alive to their purpose. But the country schools have been suffering for years for lack of a leader who will inspire them to the larger and better work they should do. We thoroughly believe Prof. Salisbury is the man for the place. His heart is in the work, his judgment has been trained and clarified by years of the most successful teaching, and he is essentially a man of the people. We expect to see him elected by a decisive majority.

There are six aldermen to be elected this spring and the voters should be careful who they elect. The second ward contest promises to be the most interesting as this ward was promised to one of the candidates for work done.

Senator Noble of Eau Claire, in private life a doctor, is out after the patent and proprietary medicine concerns with a sharp stick. Incidentally he would like to hit the doctors that advertise and get the money.

If it is right for patent medicines to put their formula on the outside of bottles why not make the doctors do the same when he prescribes bread pellets and charges just the same?

Our Assemblyman Norcross seems to be one of the hardest worked members of the legislature and despite the fact he is on the losing side in many bills, he is a graceful loser and makes friends.

Janesville has appeared in the inner circle of publicity, this time with a modern Hoch in the shape of Meyer, who at one time was a student here.

William Jennings Bryan evidently believes he is the Moses of the democratic party. If he called himself the Jonah he would not be far wrong.

Spring politics are "hushed" as yet, but soon the candidates' barrel will be tilted and the work of the bosses begin. Then comes the fun.

Tom Butler's robin does not seem to have been seen by anyone else just yet. Perhaps the bird is waiting for a "psychological shine."

New York gourmands are to eat a rhinoceros steak. A good training for this would have been three weeks at a boarding house.

The Pass did not seem half as far when the Russians came down to Mukden as it does when they are leaving.

William Bryan came to Madison for the express purpose of opposing the legislation against the railroads along.

Vladivostok can now really appreciate just what Port Arthur enjoyed from the all of the Japanese.

Kuropatkin may say to his critics: "Just look at those old men, all over sixty, that I have had to fight."

St. Petersburg does not yet, that is, the public, does not know how badly they have been whipped.

Mrs. Chadwick was guilty but her attorneys mean to try the case again and prove she was not.

The spring diet prescriptions can be kept in reserve for several weeks to come.

Now that she is really facing a prison sentence again Mrs. Chadwick is sick in bed.

Colonel Cody refuses to be reunited with Mrs. Cody despite that lady's idea he would jump at the chance.

Winter's return ticket evidently has given him a good long stop privilege.

The Pass may be another Sedan before the Japs get through.

PRESS COMMENT.

Sheboygan Journal: Is the Japanese general a great man? O ya, ma. (Sounds like a college yell.)

Superior Telegram: With both wings gone and the Japs digging for whishbone the "Little Father's" army is in a bad way.

Des Moines Register-Leader: Dispatches from Mukden shows the city to be a filthy place. It should be called Mukden.

Minneapolis Tribune: Since the cigarette has been forbidden in Wisconsin, what do you think about moving over there with your boys?

Kansas City Star: Admiral Walker's retirement from the canal commission will, it is believed, remove the last set of flowing side whiskers from public life.

Los Angeles Times: If you find yourself enjoying the frivolities of this world during the coming six weeks of repentance, you'll know you are neither very good nor very fashionable.

Philadelphia Inquirer: So far, the principal effect of the Rhodes scholarships at Oxford appears to be to furnish the English youth with some first class American instruction in athletics.

La Crosse Chronicle: Conservative business men do not see the "funny" part of the announcement made by the railroads that they intend to delay improvements in Wisconsin until populism takes a rest.

Milwaukee Journal: A Marlon, O.

man has a method by which he can hatch chickens in just half the time it takes a hen. It is unnecessary to add that a man who can hatch a chicken quicker than a hen is a warm member.

Buffalo Express: Dr. Lyman Beecher Sperry of Oberlin thinks there is a chance that some persons will live to be 150 years old. There is one ray of hope, however—we can move out of their neighborhood.

Oshkosh Northwestern: While our legislature is considering the passage of a bill to prohibit the sale and use of the cigarette, why should it stop without including the fragrant "stogie" in the same list?

St. Louis Republic: Dr. Oster remembers Byron and forgets Tennyson; remembers Schubert and forgets Wagner; remembers Alexander and forgets Wellington. Probably a man doesn't but in as often at 45 as at 25, but he goes further.

Atchison Globe: When the women see the heroine in the hero's arms on the stage, when they read in the last chapter of a book that the hero and heroine are embracing, how they applaud! But when they see the man next door kiss his wife good-by before starting for work, how they laugh and wonder "how long it will last."

Indianapolis Star: Secretary Cortelyou, who has just taken the postmaster general's portfolio, is already being mentioned to succeed Leslie M. Shaw as head of the treasury department. Mr. Cortelyou must be a versatile man, for the president's intention evidently is to use him as a sort of plug to fit any hole that needs him.

Green Bay Gazette: Barney Eaton, the Milwaukee state senator charged with bribery, is at last to be given a trial. For some time he has endeavored to get his case in court but for some unknown reason it has been held up by the prosecuting attorney. After considerable trouble during which Barney appealed to his colleagues in the senate the case has been set for trial for Monday next. His guilt or innocence will soon be shown as well as his right to retain his seat in the senate.

Chicago Journal: It has never been easy for any human being to live his best life, but the road to it lies along lines of self-denial and abstinence. Self-indulgence and the constant habit of putting one's self first have an easy descent to the worst things in life, never to the best. Study your own face and figure in the mirror: if you find there signs of self-gratification keep Lent by giving up your pet indulgence, no matter what it is. You will live longer and better and those about you will be the happier for it no less than yourself.

Racine Journal: The assembly bill to amend the constitution so that incomes may be taxed may not go through so smoothly in the senate. The Page amendment providing no incomes below 22,000 be taxed and incomes derived from property paying a tax be relieved from taxation was defeated. Norcross of Janesville made a speech against the bill insisting income taxes were unsuccessful in states that had tried such, and that such tax was iniquitous and unpopular, besides not yielding material results.

LAUNCHING BOOM FOR MRS. J. B. DAY

LADIES MAY UPSET THIRD WARD
CALCULATIONS

ON SCHOOL COMMISSIONER

H. J. Cunningham, Only Party
Candidate To Be Named at Coming Primary, May Meet with Opposition.

Some calculations on the coming spring election will have to be revised if developments which have lately come to light ever reach their blossoming stage. It is learned that a movement is on foot on the part of certain ladies of the third ward to take advantage of the limited suffrage right that has been allowed women for some years, but has been permitted to go by default in Janesville. This movement carries with it the launching of a boom for Mrs. J. B. Day as independent candidate for school commissioner. The campaign was started when it was already too late to present the candidate at the coming primary. Individual nomination papers are, therefore, being circulated at this time by ladies who have interested themselves in the movement. No difficulty is anticipated in securing the necessary names. It is assumed that women have the right to take a hand in choosing the nominee as well as electing the candidate for this office, though there be some who are not perfectly certain on this point, and the ladies are proceeding on this supposition. Thus far, it is understood, no men have been asked to sign the papers.

No Democratic Candidate

The name of Herbert J. Cunningham, appearing on the republican nomination papers, is the only one offered for the consideration of the voters at the approaching primary, the democrats having failed to propose a name. Unless, therefore, some other independent candidates are nominated, and in event Mrs. Day's name is presented, the fight will be waged between one regular party candidate and a lady whose political sympathies are unknown. There is a suggestion that the fine Italian hand of the democrats is to be discerned in this movement, but this is denied by those in closest touch with Mrs. Day's campaign. They give assurance that it is purely an independent movement on the part of the ladies who desire both to be represented on the school board and to compel the election inspectors to learn how to use the "restricted voters' ballot" on the voting machines.

No Registration This Spring

There will be no registration of intending voters this spring, the city of Janesville, acting within its legal rights, having passed an ordinance dispensing with the formality for city elections. Every voter who has lived in Wisconsin a year and who has been a resident of his voting precinct for ten days, will have the right to cast his ballot. If challenged it will only be necessary for him to satisfy the election board as to his eligibility. School commissioners are to be elected in the first, third and fifth wards, and the office of school commissioner-at-large on the city ticket is to be filled. On these all women may vote. Whether or not any of the ladies will appear at the primaries next Tuesday to assist in deciding up on the candidates already named is a question; their right to recognition at such primaries, another one.

STRONG ARTISTS HOLD THE BOARDS

Excellent Lot of Vaudeville Specialties at West Side Theatre
This Week.

Inclement weather was largely responsible for the half-filled room which greeted the new bill for the week at the West Side theatre last evening. An exceptionally good list of vaudeville artists with new, catchy, pleasing and clean stunts is booked for the six days, and the entertainment of more than an hour and a half duration exceeds the usual vaudeville theatre production. Salora in her serpentine dancing and butterfly posing is a feature. Her acts are beautiful and pleasing to the eye and comprised a complete show on the St. Louis Pike. The lighting effects, coloring the outspread wings of the butterfly in one act and shading the gown and features of Salora in the other are well managed and please. Surazali and Razali make a strong comedy team and the gentleman of the two proved to be an expert at freak piano playing, rendering a number of the old familiar tunes in a manner new to Janesville audiences, playing with his back to the instrument and also blindfolded playing with a tablecloth over the keys. Marshal and Lorraine, who were secured to fill the place of Bud Farnham, the blackface comedian who was booked for the week, delighted the audience with a mock act of a cheap melodrama, and the feminine member portrayed the part of the belle of the Bowers in a way that pleased. Miss Letha Leota Bestor in an illustrated song act sang two songs greatly appealing to the hearts of the audience. Helen Ogden, the operatic singer, and the moving pictures also furnished entertainment for those present. The program for every Friday night will be furnished by local talent. More than a dozen different amateur artists of Janesville have been booked for this Friday evening.

OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

The business office of the Gazette is open Saturday evening each week for the accommodation of those who desire to transact business, the payment of subscriptions, etc.

Attention, Odd Fellows. Janesville City Lodge No. 90 will confer the third degree on a class of five on Tuesday night, March 14, at West Side Odd Fellows' hall, after which a banquet will be given. All Odd Fellows and families are invited.

REAL STROLLER ARRIVES IN TOWN

MAURICE HECHTER IS THE REAL ARTICLE SURELY.

HAS TRAVELED OVER EUROPE

Is Now a Member of the Strollers' Company—In the City Today.

When "The Strollers" company appears at the Myers Grand next Tuesday there will be a genuine stroller. He is Maurice Hechter, who walked from Roumania to England and from New York to St. Louis. He was in Janesville with Thomas A. McKee, business manager of the show, this afternoon.

Hechter is only 19 years old. He made the long trip in the hope of winning a purse of $11,000, offered by a Roumanian touring club. Owing to an attack by robbers in Bulgaria, he was laid up in a hospital for three weeks, and thus lost the money. He reached St. Louis July 26, fifteen days late.

Hechter's story was told to President Francis, who gave him a place in one of the buildings, where he worked until the attention of Mr. McKee was called to him. The youth carries with him a book containing the evidences of his journey. It contains the seals and certificates of kings, mayors and various officials along the way. During the journey Hechter had audiences with several rulers. Two other young men started with Hechter from Roumania, but did not get far. One of them committed suicide, and the other turned back, discouraged.

The principal countries traversed by the adventurous youth were Bulgaria, Serbia, Turkey, Montenegro, Hungary, Saxony, Bohemia, Austria, Germany, Belgium, Holland and England.

The robbery in Bulgaria occurred one night after a small purse had been made up in a barroom by travelers who were interested in the journey. After leaving the place the youths were set upon by the bandits. Hechter was shot and severely wounded. Afterward it was learned that the robbers were led by a Bulgarian officer who had been instrumental in raising the subscription. This officer is now a convict, being imprisoned for another offense.

WAIT REPORT OF
THE COMMITTEE

Electric Light Company Not Trying
To Steal the Street as Indicated.

There is no attention on the part of the Electric Light company to try to steal a portion of Main or Milwaukee street by placing a pole on the corner at the Myers house. The location of this pole was given them by the city engineer, who acted under the charter granted the company. When the work was begun Mr. John Myers objected, owing to the fact it seemed to cut off a portion of the view of the hotel office. The electric company immediately stopped work and the matter was reported to Alderman Murray, chairman of the highway committee of the council. No further he has made no report and no further work has been done. In the opinion of some persons a pole placed at the spot where the city engineer indicated would mean a protection to the pedestrians who are often annoyed by drivers who use a portion of the sidewalk in turning the corner. Mr. Crowley of the electric company says that the company has no intention of doing anything to annoy property owners and until the highway committee makes their report nothing further will be done in the matter.

CANINE SENT BACK

J. B. Smith is Happy

J. B. Smith is once more in possession of his shepherd dog which was carried away by the Tift family to Steelville, Mo. The canine arrived in a crate yesterday and seemed quite pleased to get back after his brief sojourn in the "show-me" country. Police at Steelville, acting under instructions from the local office, seized the animal as soon as the household effects of the new arrivals landed in that town.

Scientific Wonders to Come.

Already the secret has been learned of purifying sewage by electricity, so that in time every brook and river may run with mountain clearness to the sea. These things and the fast developing system of wireless telegraphy are only a few of the things that science, aided by the new theory of electricity, holds in store for the distant future.

WOULD LEGALIZE COMMISSION'S ACT

Attorney General Refuses to Give Any Opinion As to the Bills Revised.

Attorney General Sturdevant will not render an opinion asked for by State Treasurer Kemp as to the legality of the warrants on the state treasury made by the capitol commission in favor of the architects who drew plans for a new capitol building. He had prepared an opinion and was about to deliver it to the treasurer last Thursday, when he was requested to hold it back for a few days, presumably by the supreme court justices, who are members of the commission. This morning it was announced that no opinion would be rendered. Instead a bill will be put into the legislature to authorize the payment of the sums of the competing architects, in other words, legalizing the act of the commission in paying plans drawn for a new capitol building instead of for repairs to the present structure. There is a great deal of quiet work being done to create public sentiment against the plan to repair the present building and in favor of the adoption of the Cass Gilbert plans. It is pointed out that a very general misapprehension of the real recommendation of the commission, obtains throughout the state. The recommendation is simply that Mr. Gilbert be engaged as the state architect and does not provide that his plans be followed. The details of his plans are being explained more definitely, too, and it is claimed that they do not necessarily call for an extravagant expenditure, but that they can be followed to any extent to suit the wishes of the legislature, entailing an expense according to $2,500,000 to $5,000,000. It never was the idea of the commission, it is claimed, to urge the erection of the entire structure at any one time, but the plans were made comprehensive to be followed in future years, if the demands of the state increase so as to make a larger structure desirable. Sentiment is being fostered against "throwing money away" in matching up a pile of old ruins. The feeling seems to be firmly set, at least in the assembly, however, against any large expenditure at this session, and in favor of repairing the present capitol instead of building a new one.

SUIT FOR $5,000;
NO HARD FEELINGS

Litigants in Automobile Damage Action Joke About Case While Lawyers Quarrel.

James A. Bowditch and Charles C. Clarke of Milton, both elderly men, are the parties to a damage suit that is being tried today before the jury in circuit court. Mr. Bowditch was run down and injured by Mr. Clarke's automobile on the 6th of November last and seeks to recover $5,000 for the injuries. It appears from the testimony of the physician who dressed his injuries that his left collar bone was fractured, his seventh and eighth ribs hurt and an arm badly sprained. E. H. Ryan and William Smith appear for the plaintiff and M. G. Jeffrie and W. C. Mount for the defendant. During a heated argument between the attorneys over the admission of certain testimony, both litigants left the courtroom and met in the hallway. Both smiled broadly and the eyes of each twinkled humorously.

"We're having a great time, aren't we, Uncle Bowditch," queried the man who is being sued for $5,000.

"Yes sir; regular blank of a time," said the plaintiff.

"Well, it was something like this," Mr. Clarke had said to a third party who inquired about the case before the plaintiff put in an appearance in the hallway, "he got out of my way and then dodged it again and I couldn't help running him down. He wanted $5,000 and I couldn't quite see it that way."

WOULD ORGANIZE
ALL THE FARMERS

Meeting at Stoughton to Begin the Operations in Rock County
Soon.

Thirteen charter members laid the foundation for an organization of farmers at a meeting in the Stoughton armory Saturday afternoon. It is a part of the American Society of Equity, which has branches in the counties of Rock, La Fayette, Dane, Iowa, Sauk, Adams, Juneau, Washburn, Columbia, Richland, Eau Claire, Chippewa, Dunn, Burnett, Washburn, Trempealeau, Wood and Clark, and promises to spread into every valuable agricultural section of the state. W. C. Crowley of Baraboo and J. C. Hanson of Cambridge, agents for the society, were present and gave the necessary instructions. W. T. Olson was chosen president and James Bickley, secretary. The next meeting will be held Saturday, March 25. Mr. Crowley said: "This is not a revival of the Grange or alliance but a national movement that is forming in farm products out of business and give the farmers a profitable price for their crop. Farmers all over the country will be enrolled. We believe that if marketing is controlled, prices can be made and maintained. If farmers can, (and they do) to a large extent, control the marketing and regulate prices when unorganized, they will be an irresistible force when organized on this plan, even to a moderate extent."

DELIGHTED WITH FANE STOCK CO.

Big Audience More Than Pleased with Good Acting in "The Light-house Robbery" and Specialties.

Lovers of melodrama filled every part of the Myers opera-house last night to witness the opening performance of Walter Fane's Stock company. The piece selected for presentation was of the conventional repertory kind, but with the artistic genius of well-trained players the audience forgot the improbable situations and intuitively shared the sorrows of the melancholy lover and hated the contriving villain. The scenery in the first act, showing the ocean-swept coast and cosy homestead nestled in the cliffs in the shadow of the lighthouse, could hardly be surpassed by much more elaborately staged productions. Mildred Keeler's, James Lettison and Alfred Russell's specialties between the acts won generous applause, the latter requiring three encores to appease the audience. The company's own orchestra of eight pieces furnished the incidental music and overtures. The bill for this evening is "The Curse of Cards." Tomorrow afternoon a refined vaudeville entertainment will be presented.

Attention: The Ladies' Auxiliary of the B. of R. T. will meet at eight o'clock Wednesday morning at their hall to attend the funeral of the late John Byrne, half head.

The Terrier's Sad Fate

Willie Terrier was very proud when he had dressed himself up in his new clothes, and he was anxious to take a run downstairs and show himself off.

"I wish my master would send me on an errand," said he.

But his master did not wish to send him anywhere, although there was a letter that had to be taken to the police station by some one.

"I want Charlie Cur to take that letter," said the master as he stopped at the kennels and laid the letter on a box.

HE TOOK THE LETTER.

Now, Charlie Cur was not around at that moment, and Willie Terrier began to think it over.

"Here's a chance for me to show off my good clothes!" he cried. "I'll take the letter to the police station."

So he seized the envelope and away he went.

"Now, wait until I read the letter," said the policeman as Willie placed the envelope in his hand. The policeman read, and this is what he read:

"Dear Mr. Policeman—The bearer of this letter, one of my dogs, is no longer of any use to me. Please knock him in the head and throw him overboard."

Of course it was all meant for Charlie Cur, who was an old dog and had seen his day, and it is sad to think of Willie Terrier's fate.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

An Animal Story For Little FolksWhy
The Animal Schools Failed

I wonder how many little boys and girls know why there are no schools in animal land?

Well, wherever there are schools there are school commissioners or a school board, which has charge of the schools and makes the laws to govern them.

When the animals decided to establish schools they selected a school board, consisting of Mr. Elephant, Mr. Kangaroo and Mr. Monkey, and these fellows held a meeting to agree upon their plans.

"What shall the animal children be taught in the animal school?" That is the question," declared Mr. Monkey.

THE SCHOOL BOARD HELD A MEETING.

"Yes, that is the question," exclaimed Mr. Kangaroo and Mr. Elephant together.

"They should be taught to climb trees," said the monkey positively. "All my relatives will serve as teachers."

"No, indeed!" shouted the other two in chorus. "That would never do."

"They should be taught to jump," cried the kangaroo with emphasis. "All my relatives will be glad to teach them."

"No, indeed!" yelled the other two in unison. "That would never do."

"They should be taught to look wise," said the elephant, "and all my relatives will act as teachers."

"No, indeed!" howled the other two together. "That will never do."

"Well, what will do?" they asked as they looked at each other in perplexity.

"Teach them to climb," said Mr. Monkey.

"Teach them to jump," said Mr. Kangaroo.

"Teach them to look wise," said Mr. Elephant.

And so it was that none of them would yield, and when they saw there was no chance to agree they all became angry and decided not to have any animal schools at all.

Between you and me, I expect the animals are just as smart as they would be if they were taught by the elephant, monkey and kangaroo. What do you think?—Detroit Journal.

CONGRESS OF MOTHERS
LISTEN TO PRESIDENTNation's Chief Executive Commends
Conscientious Motherhood and Condemns Race Suicide.

Washington, March 14.—Highest praise for conscientious motherhood; condemnation for what has become known as "race suicide"; advocacy of careful, conservative training of the young; appreciation of personal duty as the basis for the best citizenship—such were the central ideas advanced by President Theodore Roosevelt Monday night in an address before the National Congress of Mothers.

The president was warmly greeted by the women when he entered the auditorium of the Metropolitan M. E. church. He read his address, but now and then he departed from the exact text to interject a telling point.

The main points in the address follow:

"The birth pangs make all men the debtors of all women."

"On the whole, I think the duty of the woman the most important, the more difficult, and the more honorable of the two."

"No piled up wealth . . . will permanently avail any people . . . unless the average woman is a good wife, a good mother, able and willing to perform the first great duty of womanhood, able and willing to bear, and to bring up as they should be brought up, healthy children, sound in body, mind, and character, and numerous enough so that the race shall increase and not decrease."

"No mother has an easy time, and most mothers have very hard times; and yet what true mother would barter her experience of joy and sorrow in exchange for a life of cold selfishness, which insists upon perpetual amusement and the avoidance of care?"

"The man or woman who deliberately foregoes these blessings (children) whether from viciousness, coldness, shallow-heartedness, self-indulgence, or mere failure to appreciate aright the difference between the all-important and the unimportant—why, such a creature merits contempt as hearty as any visited upon the soldier who runs away in battle."

NIEDRINGHAUS IS DROPPED

Missouri Republicans to Vote Two Days for S. P. Spencer.

Jefferson City, Mo., March 14.—At a caucus attended by fifty-three Republican members of the legislature, in an endeavor to break the deadlock over the selection of a United States senator, a resolution was adopted blinding the members to vote at the joint sessions of the legislature for two consecutive days for Judge Selden P. Spencer of St. Louis. This means that the members of the legislature are released from the caucus action when Thomas K. Niedringhaus was nominated for the senatorship. The Kereens Republicans took no part in the caucus and it is regarded as extremely improbable that they will agree to desert Kereens.

HEBREW SABBATH IS UPHELD

Ohio Judge Decides the Jewish Holiday is Within the Law.

Columbus, Ohio, March 14.—An Ohio court for the first time has recognized the Hebrew Sabbath as within the meaning of the statute relating to Sunday observance. Samuel Rosen, an orthodox Jew, was arrested and fined in police court for keeping his place of business open on Sunday. The case was appealed to the common pleas court, Rosen claiming he had observed the Hebrew Sabbath, from start to finish on Friday evening to Saturday morning. The court upheld his contention and reversed the verdict in the police court.

Town Keeps Out Negroes.

Durant, I. T., March 14.—No negroes are allowed to stay all night here. The federal judge declares that negro witnesses must be allowed to stay or court be abolished. A "Booker T. Washington" hotel, exclusively for negroes, has been established.

Woman Dies at Age of 103.

Bloomington, Ill., March 14.—Mrs. Barbee, one of the oldest residents in Illinois, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Martha Doveoeth, in Stanford, aged 103 years. She was born in Franklin county, Ohio.

SENDS PEONAGE CASE
BACK TO LOWER COURTSupreme Bench Reverses Verdict on Technicality in Indictment, but Upholds Law Regarding Servitude.

Washington, March 14.—Samuel M. Clayatt, found guilty of peonage in the courts of Florida, won his plea in the United States Supreme court on a technicality and the case was thrown back on the lower court for retrial. "Clayatt was charged with 'returning' to servitude two negroes named Gordon and Ridley. The opinion, which was handed down by Justice Brewer, sustained the constitutionality of the law for the punishment of peonage, but held that as the record failed to show that the negroes ever before had been in custody, the charge of 'returning' them could not be made good."

Justice Harlan dissented, saying that in his opinion, there was evidence tending to make a case within the statute. "The accused made no objection to the submission of the case to the jury," he said, "and it is going very far to hold in a case like this, disclosing barbarities of the worst kind against these negroes, that the trial court erred in sending the case to the jury."

The commercial treaty of 1853 between the United States and France was involved in the decision of the court concerning a French sailor arrested in San Francisco on charges of insurrection on board ship. The sailor, Jean Francois Maisan, was freed by the United States District court when his vessel sailed. The Supreme court rules that full two months of imprisonment must be served and has ordered Maisan back to his cell.

Another decision is that the 10 per cent additional pay allowed to officers serving in the insular possessions will be computed on their regular salaries with longevity pay added.

"Bell of St. Patrick's Will."

At Belfast is still treasured the "bell of St. Patrick's will," which bears the fearsome name. "Clog an cadbachta" "Platrait," and has inscribed on it the dates 1801 and 1105, and which thus cannot be less than eight centuries old.

TUBERCULOSIS COLONY.

Springfield, Ill., March 14.—A colony of pine shanties or cottages for the treatment of tuberculosis is likely to be established by the legislature. Representative Trautmann, chairman of the appropriations committee, said that the committee is in favor of recommending a bill providing for the treatment of the disease and making an appropriation to carry out its provisions. The reason the physicians who have been advocating such a colony will be successful, if Trautmann's prediction proves true, is that the expense of establishing the colony will not be large.

The state board of charities, having considered the claims of the consumptives and the epileptics, decided in favor of the latter and recommended the establishment of a colony for the treatment of epileptics. For this purpose $300,000 would have been needed.

The appropriations committee decided this money should be applied to the Bartonville asylum for incurable insane, and the appropriation bill for item of $280,000 for a new cottage there and $80,000 additional for maintenance in the second year.

Having taken this action, the committee was inclined to go back to the tuberculosis proposition and give $100,000 for the establishment of the colony. The representatives have been led to believe this will be sufficient to build pine cottages, which the physicians have assured them will be satisfactory to the state. A separate bill is necessary to provide for the state treatment of tuberculosis.

"We have decided that Bartonville should have the additional cottages," said Mr. Trautmann, "and we cannot give the asylum an extra appropriation and then make an appropriation for epileptics. Legislation for the latter will have to come some day. We believe, however, that the amount necessary to start the tuberculosis colony can be furnished. Epileptics, such as need state treatment, already have been given some sort of care in insane asylums. This is not the proper place for them, but it is better than none."

The charitable appropriation bill will include a provision for a couple of new cottages at the girls' home at Geneva and for an addition to the Eye and Ear hospital in Chicago. The measure will not carry a large appropriation for buildings, aside from the Bartonville item.
